

Learning for Sustainability

Your World My World

Children in P1M used creative and critical thinking skills when engaged in their topic Your World, My World.

They compared the similarities and differences between their daily life and the lives of 4 other children around the world.

The children enjoyed 'putting themselves in the picture'. They also reflected about what was happening in the background and to the side of the photograph.

