

December Reading and Spelling Patterns for Hazelnut

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

-le	ou	ow
bible bundle candle needle poodle chuckle prickle uncle angle grumble able table	cloud proud around found ground surround count hour sour house mouse about	bow allow brow cow brown crown drown powder owl flower towel tower
Tricky word: their	Tricky word: two	Tricky word: were

December Reading and Spelling Patterns for Lemon

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

-ke	-old -ild	-ind -nt
bake cake lake stake flake trike bike spike bloke joke broke smoke	bold cold gold fold hold old golden scold told sold wild mild	behind blind find kind mind wind pint
Tricky word: who	Tricky word: which	Tricky word: when

December Reading and Spelling Patterns for Cherry

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

-a-e	-a-e	-i-e
made cage page cake make came game mate gave save	shade brake flake flame plane grape shape plate care square	tide wide hide bike time fine pipe wise bite kite inside slide
Tricky word: give	Tricky word: going	Tricky word: Mr

December Reading and Spelling Patterns for Mango

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

-ng	-ing	-nk
bang fang rang long song hung lung sung	bring cling king fling ring sing sling sting swing wing	bank plank blank sank tank blink drink ink pink sink
Tricky word: where	Tricky word: would	Tricky word: you

