

June Reading and Spelling Patterns for Hazelnut

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

-ing	-d -ed	-tch	wh
burning counting discovering disturbing frightening parking returning starting streaming throwing	assorted battled crowded disturbed drowned flawed frightened grumbled powered surprised	catch hatch match watch stitch switch kitchen sketch stretch clutch	whale wheat when where whether which while who whole whose tricky word: partition	tricky word: division	tricky word: multiplication	tricky word: subtraction

June Reading and Spelling Patterns for Lemon

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

-le	ou	ow	aw
bundle candle needle chuckle uncle ankle grumble fable table sample	cloud proud around ground pound surround count flour hour mouse	allow cow brown crown down drown powder towel flower shower	draw flaw in-law outlaw straw lawn yawn awkward awful claw tricky word: only	tricky word: their	tricky word: two	tricky word: were

---

June Reading and Spelling Patterns for Cherry

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

Plural es	s/es	-ing	-d
benches	cooks	beating	amazed
lunches	thinks	boiling	closed beaches	speaks	coaching	hoped gases	boasts	fishing	lined buses	hopes	joining	named crashes	slides	painting	shaped wishes	coaches	preaching	smiled
glasses	teaches	sailing	tuned
buzzes	rushes	teaching	used sandwiches	fizzes	thinking	waved
tricky word: money	tricky word: often	tricky word: place	tricky word: school

June Reading and Spelling Patterns for Mango

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

-o-e	-u-e	Add e	Add e
broke broken smoke spoke spoken stone throne close chosen frozen	cube tube rude duke flume tune cute use fuse abuse	mad made cap cape scrap scrape hop hope not note	slid slide spin spine rip ripe bit bite slim slime
tricky word: now	tricky word: only	tricky word: right	tricky word: these

