

May Reading and Spelling Patterns for Hazelnut

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

-ful	-less	-ness	Plurals s/es boastful	ageless	childishness	addresses careful	careless	darkness	angles faithful	endless	fairness	bubbles forgetful	fearless	foolishness	churches handful	helpless	kindness	diseases harmful	hopeless	lateness	farmers hopeful	powerless	suddenness	horses mouthful	seedless	wickedness	markets powerful	shameless	willingness	nights thankful	speechless		nurses useful	thankless		puppets playful	useless		shirts tricky word: sure	tricky word: swimming	tricky word: world	tricky word: young

May Reading and Spelling Patterns for Lemon

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

gh	s blends/th	double	-le high	scrap	address	bubble bright	scrape	better	scribble
brighten	shrink	butter	cuddle fight	shrug	collect	paddle flight	splash	common	riddle fright	spring	daddy	saddle frighten	straight	hammer	juggle light	stripe	happy	apple lighten		letter	bottle
right	three	mummy	kettle sight	throat	puppy	dazzle slight	throne	summer	puzzle tricky word: before	tricky word: four	tricky word: head	tricky word: once

May Reading and Spelling Patterns for Cherry

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

ow	oi/oy	-er/-est	Plurals s below	boil	braver	bikes blow	coil	bravest	boats
flow	coin	colder	boots
follow	foil	coldest	chairs
glow	join	longer	goals
grow	oil	longest	rooms
low	point	older	shapes
own	soil	oldest	teams
show	toil	richer	noises
slow	boy	richest	pages
snow	coy	smaller	prizes
throw	joy	smallest	sizes
yellow	toy
tricky word: knew	tricky word: lady	tricky word: lived	tricky word: love

May Reading and Spelling Patterns for Mango

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

-a-e	-i-e	-i-e	-o-e
made	tide	smile	coke
cage	wide	stile	joke
page	bike	while	woke
cake	hike	crime	hole
lake	time	shine	dome
make	line	spine	home
name	mine	tire	rope
same	pipe	alive	nose
date	wise	drive	vote
save	kite	live	rose
tricky word: live	tricky word: more	tricky word: Mr	tricky word: Mrs

