

October Reading and Spelling Patterns for Hazelnut

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

Plurals -s and -es	-ing	-d	-ed
cooks sweets thinks screams waves seeds shops coaches teaches wishes crushes buzzes	beating boiling coaching floating fishing joining painting reading sailing sleeping teaching thinking	amazed baked closed hated hoped joked saved shaped tuned used waved liked	booted cooked enjoyed floated heated joined looked moaned nailed played sailed shifted
Tricky word: something	Tricky word: until	Tricky word: whole	Tricky word: write

October Reading and Spelling Patterns for Lemon

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

-i-e	-i-e	-o-e	-o-e
tide wide hide bike time fine pipe wise bite kite inside slide	smile while chime crime shine fire spire wire live alive drive prize	coke joke poke dome home rope hose nose rose vote	broke broken spoke spoken woken stone throne close chose chosen froze frozen
Tricky word: Mr	Tricky word: Mrs	Tricky word: now	Tricky word: only

October Reading and Spelling Patterns for Cherry

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

Ch -ch	sh	-sh	th
chat chest chicken chin chip bench rich much lunch such	shaft shell shed shin ship shock shop shot shun shy	ash cash crash flash mash rash dish fish wish brush	than that the them there thin thing bath with cloth
Tricky word: after	Tricky word: because	Tricky word: blue	Tricky word: don't

October Reading and Spelling Patterns for Mango

The best way for your child to embed and apply their knowledge of spelling in their writing is to dictate a few sentences to them to write which include their spelling words. Revising spelling patterns for a short burst each day is more effective than working for one long session per week. Please select some activities from the Spell Well sheet sent home at the start of the year and try dictating some sentences for your child to write.

Extension:

- Can you find words that follow the same spelling pattern that are longer or more complicated? Bring them in to share with the class.

- st	-ast	-ass -ask	-ft
list mist best nest test vest west dust must rust	blast cast castle fast last mast nasty past	class pass glass grass brass ask bask flask	drift gift lift swift left loft soft
Tricky word: gone	Tricky word: many	Tricky word: one	Tricky word: out

